AN ADDRESS

Of the Young Men's Progressive Association to the People of the United States.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE CON-STITUTION AND LAWS
DEMANDED

Names of some of the Victims of "Local Self Government."

THE DARKEST DAYS OF BAR-BARISM OUTDONE.

Graphic Description of the Reign of Terror.

A Frightful Array of Facts.

A CONVENTION FAVORED.

A PLEA FOR HARMONY AND UNITY.

This Association was called into existence in consequence of the most pressing necessities, and at a time when the Civil and Political Rights of our people were threatened with annihilation, and the race utterly at sea in regard to its political future. In view of these circumstances, the young men of this City and State have blended themselves together for the purpose of averting if possible the impending catastrophe, and extend their protection to the humblest citizen of the State. We therefore deem this the most auspicious moment to launch out upon this momentous issue, when the wrongs inflicted upon us are prominent before the country, and whilst the National Congress is in session.

When we retrospect the past, we behold a spectacle sad in the extreme. Ever since the passage of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments to the constitution, a reign of terror has been inaugurated which has bedewed the soil of our State with the blood of its people, rendered happy homes desolate. Wives have been made widows, children orphans, and the existence of our party threatened with destruction.

It would be unnecessary not to say tedious, to go over the period of fifteen years, during which time our people were made to suffer the bitterest trials; their grievances if well collected would cover thousands of pages, every line of which would move the heart of any man, except a Southern bulldozer.

We can conceive how difficult it is for the civilized and refined people of the North to give credence to any statements concerning these horrible deeds which belong properly to the dark ages of barbarity and crime: Yet they are facts which stand forth as plain as the noon day sun.

When President Hayes inaugurated his "Southern Policy" which gave the long coveted "Local Self Government" to the South, we had hoped that the prejudicial feeling in regard to the black man's suffrage had subsided forever; we had hoped that there would have been no more assassinations, whippings, or intimidations; we had hoped that the good citizens of the South without regard to race, color or previous condition would have been allowed on election day, to go to the polls and in the language of President Hayes "cast one untrammelled ballot and have that ballot honestly counted."

Illusory, fallacious hopes. At the first election after the inauguration of that policy, the outrages inflicted upon defenseless colored citizens—Republicans in politics and convictions—by the lawless bands of night-riders, styling themselves "Regulators" or White Leaguers, in the larger Republican parishes of the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Congressional Districts, may well evoke the earnest consideration, and heartily condemnation of every loyal American throughout the country.

Such cases as that of Daniel Hill of Ouachita parish, who was riddled with bullets, and his assassination completed whilst upon his dying bed trying to make peace with his God; Herman Bell of the same parish taken from his home in the dead of night, dragged to the woods and massacred, his body left to feed the vultures and the prowling beasts of the forests; Commodore Smallwood, Charles Carroll, John Higgins and Washington

Hill of Concordia parish; Charles Bethel, Robert Williams, Munday Hill, James Stafford, Louis Postlewait, Wm. Henry and others of Tensas parish, were ruthlessly murdered in their different parishes for no other reason than that of being Republicans, and for attempting to exercise their rights as American citizens. Whole parishes were run over and victims of "Local Self-Government" were left by scores hanging to trees, all this even during the awful time when God was pouring his wrath upon the State as a seeming chastisement for these hellish deeds. These are facts, patent facts, no matter how incredible they may seem.

We invite the good people of the North, East and West to behold this spectacle and consider the peril of being a Republican citizen in the South. In the evidence of ex-State Senator Bayford Blunt of Natchitoches parish and his twenty or more murdered associates, the testimony of Republican refugees from Tensas parish, as well as the corroborative statements of respectable Conservative Democrats of that section, the Caldonia outrages, the atrocious crimes of Ouachita parish, and many other minor offenses instanced in the same lawless class—in false registration, ballot box stuffing and a dishonest count of the votes in nearly every parish of the State, register in brief the crimes of Democracy. Our model State Government, in violation of law as well as good faith, has quietly acquiesced in these proceedings, and under that favor, the enemies of order have not been brought to justice, but allowed to roam at large, flaunting with impunity, their bloody standard in the face of civilization. The above summary is enough to show beyond controversy, that the corner stone of Southern creed, consists in the gradual but relentless extermination of the negro race. Upon the successful operation of that barbarous doctrine, hang the hopes of these irreconcilable enemies of the constitution to get full control of the Government. No item in the history of the darkest ages of barbarism offers a parallel, either as to the character of the contrivance, or the manner of execution. Pacific appeals and virtuous examples will never solve the problem of American suffrage in the South; experience has abundantly demonstrated that all experiments founded on policy and sentimentalism looking to such end, have signally failed.

Such is the condition of our State to-day, and these are the reasons for the inauguration of this association. If we are citizens of this great and free country, we demand our rights as such. We appeal first to President Hayes, and we are proud to hail with pleasure his message in relation to his "Southern Policy," we see in it the honest intentments of an honorable statesman, we see in it the humanitarian, the Christian and the President, and we look to him to rectify these unparalleled outrages upon American citizens. We protest that "Local Self-Government" South, means political outrages, under which the rights of citizens needs the protecting arm of the National Government. We appeal to Congress to enact such laws as will remedy the present outrages upon the civil and political rights of Republican citizens of the South. We appeal to the Judiciary to punish without distinction of position, wealth or pedigree, these lawless men who dye their hands in innocent blood, or those who aid and abet the same. We appeal to the religious and moral sentiment of the whole country to lend their aid in suppressing these great wrongs. We ask for the plain and fearless enforcement of the constitution and laws, considering that to be the most dignified and effective method of settling questions of violence which their provisions cover.

We are uncompromisingly opposed to any scheme looking to the disfranchisement of our race. We indulge the conviction that the offenses committed against, and all assaults made upon American citizenship, can be checked in the South as they are in the North, if the laws are properly enforced. The offenders should be brought to justice, and the duty of the Government in the premises then, is unmistakable. Such a damnable policy of excluding a large class of citizens from the political circle of the country, would be a confession of weakness suicidal to the very existence of the Government, and perhaps a new source of annoyance to the disfranchised.

The anticipation of the above results is sufficiently suggestive to enter an unqualified objection to such a mean, cowardly and unconstitutional measure. It would be more honest and less expensive to go into another war, if necessary, for the further vindication and better affirmation of the principle of universal equality. The right of suffrage conferred upon the colored citizen is a part of the constitution made in pursuance of certain achievements, as a wise and beneficent embodiment in that instrument, and the pledge it represents is sacred, and must be sacredly kept.

We are proud to acknowledge our adhesion to the National Republican Party, but we stand ready to co-operate with the good citizens of any section of the State in the interest of reform, wherever such co-operation does not interfere with our cardinal principles. We shall always consider it a special cause for gratification, whenever our assistance can be instrumental in promoting the commercial interests of this commonwealth. Ever mindful of the fact that we are vitaly interested in the welfare of the State, we shall always strive for its prosperity. In fact, the record of our race in that direction is a flattering memento to our remembrance. We favor the calling of a convention at the earliest practical moment, for the purpose of devising means by which we can secure the enjoyment of that protection, which so far has been simply a taunt to our suffering people. We want freedom of ballot for all citizens alike. We want safety in life and property, freedom in the pursuit of happiness, and in the acquiring of education. We find these blessings in the constitution, and we hope to find the solution of the means of enjoying them in the hearts of the American people. We shall not pause, but will go on steadily with the work of redemption until the black race, perfectly rehabilitated, shall assume its proper position, under the flag of our common country. We bid our people to stand firmly in their convictions, for the day of deliverance is not far distant. We notice with special pleasure, the late victories in the North, and construe them as a decided triumph for the cause of liberty. We hope the same spirit shall continue to exist in that section until the rights of all men before the law are respected and protected, throughout the length and breadth of the Nation. If we mistake not the temper of the country, the time is fast approaching when a black man's ballot will be considered as precious to the Union, as was his manhood during the perils of the war.

The American people will not permit the bandits of the South to pave their way to power with bloody ballots. The Young Men's Progressive Association propose that the grievances of our race in the South shall be made known to the world, and it shall spare no means to see that the wrongs so inflicted are properly avenged. We advise the colored men to set aside their personal differences in this solemn hour of our existence, and turn over a clean leaf in salutation of the dawn of a new era, which pleads for harmony, unity, and cordiality. Our motto is, "The Constitution, Order, and good Government."

The past week has been a fatal one for Congressmen.

The Houma Courier says: The sugar crop of 1878 will be remembered as the finest crop since the war.

On the 23d inst, the statue of Charles Sumner was unveiled in the public garden, Boston, Mass., by Gov. Rice.

Secretary Sherman denies any favoritism in the matter of the First National bank of New York affair, and expresses willingness to aid an inquiry.

Hahn, thinks the Acklen business "cooked his goose" but indulges the hope that the President will repair the wrong he has done him in removing him from office. The wrong is good.

In order to give place to the colored men's address we have been compelled to exclude from this issue Judge Billing's charge to the United States Grand Jury and the report of the Secretary of our complimentary reception, promised last week.

The announcement of Senator Coulter's indisposition to allow his name to be used in connection with the next Republican nomination for the presidency was swiftly followed by a similar announcement relative to Mr. Blaine. Does this mean a still hunt, or what?

Several communications are unavoidably crowded out of this issue. We will endeavor to publish them in the next. Friends will please take notice that we go to press on Fridays, and communications received later than Tuesday will have to lie over a week.

President Hayes, is reported as saying, he did not think the simple fact that General Grant had been president twice should debar him from being a candidate again in 1880 if the people want him. The lapse of one term, he thought placed Grant on a footing with every other citizen.

The first number of the Pan-Yan Mystery, a new illustrated family newspaper published at Pan-Yan, New York, has been received. Its typography is neat, matter chaste and elegant, and from the pens of eminent writers; we wish it abundant success and will be pleased to place it on our exchange list.

Senator Kellogg and General Anderson, Deputy Collector of the Port, left Washington last Tuesday and arrived here in due course of rail, and it is again rumored that the visit of the Senator is the forerunner of important changes in the Custom House. This time, we believe there is some foundation for the report.

A press telegram from Washington, recently, asserts that: "At the Cabinet meeting to-day there was general congratulation among those present at the peaceable condition of things throughout the entire country. One member of the Cabinet remarked that at no time within his memory was there more harmony and good feeling in all sections than at the present time."

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

Under the above caption the People's Advocate, discussing the silly report which recently went the rounds of the press relative to a movement being on foot among the colored men of the South to hold a national convention for the purpose of petitioning Congress to disfranchise themselves, opposes the movement, and says:

"We think that nothing has done more to lower us in the estimation of the other race, than our National Conventions. Such bodies generally spend their time in wrangling over insignificant points of order and bombastic resolutions, giving to our enemies good cause for saying that we are incapable of self-government, and to our friends a plausible excuse for expressions of disappointment and grief. No, let us have no National Convention."

Such bodies are usually called together for the purpose of giving special prominence to some one who desires to be considered leader of his race, or notoriety to those whose greatest happiness consists in seeing their names in the papers."

That there is much truth in what it says about the conventions of our people in the past in regard to wrangling over points of order and the disposition of some of the individuals in them seeking undue notoriety and prominence we admit; but when it says nothing has done more to lower our people in the estimation of the other race than our National conventions, we are compelled to dissent from its views and declare our belief that the Advocate is greatly mistaken.

Confining ourselves to the conventions of our day, we assert without fear of successful contradiction that the National Conventions held at Columbia, South Carolina, New Orleans, the newspaper convention at Cincinnati, and the Nashville convention, did not "lower us in the estimation of the other race" nor "give our enemies good cause for saying that we are incapable of self-government," but on the contrary reflected credit upon the race and exercised a healthy influence upon the country.

Brother Cromwell, living in Washington and enjoying the benefit of a comfortable government position, may see no need of a convention, but the millions of his race in the South who have been whipped and scourged, suffered all manner of abuses in the late canvass, denied the exercise of their rights, and driven from their homes and families, wish through a conference or convention to tell the country of their wrongs and appeal to it for sympathy and help—even though somebody may aspire to "special prominence or desires to be considered leader of his race." And what is better still, they will do it, despite the opposition of our valuable Washington contemporary, which seems to have changed front, of late, on this important question.

In opposing a convention it produces a strong argument in favor of one. It advises us "to ask the National Government to protect us in the right it has conferred." * * * To appeal to the good sense of the American people throughout the North, East and West. * * * To produce incontrovertible evidence of intimidation, outrages and ballot box stuffing."

And then opposes the only instrumentality through which the work can be accomplished. Nothing but a conference or convention can do this effectively, and we find it exceedingly strange that our brethren of the colored press are so slow in comprehending the fact.

Individual efforts to awake the country to a realization of the true condition of our people in the South, and individual protests against the wrongs inflicted upon the race, cannot carry with them the weight or command the attention that would be accorded the work and utterances of a conference or convention of the people, and we trust our colored contemporaries will recognize the fact and join us in the advocacy of a conference or convention of our people.

The Southern Workman truly says: "The spirit of help-yourself, and pay-your-own-way, is the one to aim for in lifting any race—or any individual, into independent manhood."

THE COLORED MEN'S ADDRESS.

On our first page we publish the address of the Executive Committee of the Colored Men's Protective Association, recently organized in this city, and which bids fair to become a useful and valuable auxiliary in the work of reformation and unity among the best elements of our people.

The paper comes at an opportune time and by its specification of facts and mention of the names of some of the victims who fell in the late bloody political riots, is bound to attract attention to the wrongs inflicted upon our hapless people pending the late election.

The paper graphically describes the reign of terror which obtained in several parishes in this State, and the barbarous outrages perpetrated upon colored citizens for attempting to exercise the right to vote; and considering the short time engaged in its preparation and the difficulty encountered in ascertaining the names of the murdered men, owing to the dread of persons familiar with the facts to make the same known, is very creditable to its authors.

They deserve, and will receive the grateful thanks of the colored masses of the State for this manifestation of unselfish interest in their welfare.

We attach more than ordinary importance to this movement, as it is an effort from within the race to right its wrongs. It is, we trust, the dawn of an era of self reliance. A recognition of the fact, too long ignored, that "the Lord helps those who help themselves" and that the colored people in the future, will be just what they make of themselves "Vassals or Peers."

The race and their friends are challenged to the proof of the charges of lawlessness and violence made against the white people of certain parishes in this State, and other portions of the South, and they must produce it, or have their charges discredited and disbelieved. The truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, is what the country desires to hear, and it will not be satisfied with a general asseveration of criminal outrages upon the colored people.

This work, from the very nature of the case, devolves upon the colored men of the South, and we are glad to see the imitative step in this direction taken by the Young Men's "Protective Association" of our city. Their recommendation of a convention, emphasises an article on that subject in another column. "To this compulsion it must come at last," and the sooner the better.

EDITOR LOUISIANIAN.

DEAR SIR—Knowing the interest you show to all educational matters concerning the colored people, I take pleasure to send you a detailed account of the closing exercises which took place on December 24th, at 12 M., at the Colored High School, known as Academic School No. 3. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, the attendance was very good, and visitors came in spite of the rain to enjoy what can be properly called a literary treat. The exercises lasted until 2 30 P. M. This school, which opened November 6th 1877, and closed last session with ten pupils, (girls) numbers now 40 students, 22 girls and 18 boys. The affair was quite a success, and shows considerable progress from the past of the colored children attending the school.

After some good declamations in French and in English, we had some interesting dialogues and compositions. The exercises were concluded by the awarding of prizes as rewards for attendance, department and scholarship. Master John Joe Lewis of Algiers obtained the first prize, and Master Edward McCall, the second; prizes were also given to Misses Lavinia Randolph, Maria Caldwell and Victoria Carrian.

Respectfully,
E. J. EDMONDS, Principal.

The New Orleans Democrat has changed the name of the firm from George W. Dupré & Co., to the Democrat Publishing Company.

TWO MORE UNFORTUNATES.

The steamboat Danube, from which the two colored witnesses were taken in Red river, arrived at the wharf Wednesday about noon, and inquiry on board of her developed no new facts in regard to the matter.

To people familiar with the methods resorted to in many portions of the Southern country to get rid of troublesome witnesses and to deter others, it is superfluous to make any further inquiries. As soon as it was learned that the men had been taken from the constable that made the pretended arrest by a party of masked men, the conclusion was irresistible that their fate was sealed and two more murders were to be added to the long list of similar crimes that have disgraced this State; and yet, Senator Butler styles from his place in the United States Senate that witnesses are as free to testify in the South as they are in Maine. Oh! Shame, where is thy blush.

Hon. John R. Lynch, who we regret to learn has been ill for some time, writes us from Natchez, his home, a friendly letter in which he says, "I am glad you have commenced again the publication of the LOUISIANIAN. It should be, and I hope will be cordially supported by the colored people. We should have a paper through which to present our case to the American people."

He strongly endorses the Conference movement and suggests that it be held the first week in April.

In regard to it he says: The Southern question should be presented to the country in its true light, and I am satisfied that it can be done more effectively by leading colored men than by any other class of citizens.

Another of those "needs long-felt" has been supplied in the appearance among our exchanges this week of the West Carroll Courier with that significant announcement at the head of its columns, "Official Journal of the Parish." Mr. John A. Burns is the editor.

Conservative in politics, it proposes to look after the interests of the farmer, favors emigration and internal improvements and the maintenance of public schools and asserts it will labor for the good of all the people without regard to race, color, or previous condition.

It makes a bad beginning, however, in this direction, as it publishes an account of jail breaking and murder of a colored man, who was in the hands of the law, in the parish of St. Mary, without a word of condemnation of the unlawful proceedings.

We are indebted to some kind friend for a copy of the supplement to the Daily Evening Traveller of Boston Mass., containing a report of the proceedings of the American Missionary Association at the annual meeting held at Taunton in the early part of last month.

The reports relative to the freedmen are very interesting and the papers by Revs. C. L. Woodworth, George Leon Walker and Ebenezer Cutler, evince a careful and elaborate study of the characteristics and temper of our people which could only proceed from humanitarians deeply and devotedly interested in our welfare and elevation.

While there are some things in these papers that we do not entirely agree with, still on the whole they present such a truthful picture of the general condition and needs of the race that we accept them as valuable additions to the current literature on the subject.

The New England Society held its seventy-third annual dinner at New York on the evening of December 23, 1878. Many distinguished persons were present and speeches were made by Secretary Sherman, Secretary Evans and Senator Blaine and others.

Reading country exchanges is a very instructive and entertaining past time just now. The editorials are principally rolls of Delinquent Tax Payers. Lafourche shows about the shortest list of delinquents of any parish.—Thilodanx Sentinel.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

SELF DEVELOPMENT.

The process of self development should be encouraged to the fullest extent. Children should be led to make their own investigations and to draw their own inferences. They should be told as little as possible, and induced to discover, as much as possible. Humanity has progressed solely by self-instruction, and that to achieve the best results, each mind must progress somewhat after the same fashion, is continually proved by the marked success of self-made men.—Herbert Spencer.

MORAL INFLUENCES OF THE STUDY OF NATURAL HISTORY.—If great care is taken to bring out the evidence in every case, and no statements are permitted to pass unquestioned which have not been tested by observation or experiment, a great respect will gradually arise for the truth. I believe that a conscientious regard for the truth may be established in this way without that word itself ever having been mentioned. Accuracy in observation and moderation of statement, certainly the surest guardians, if not the keepers of truth, and these two qualities are more easily obtained by the study of objects than by any other means.—Alpheus Hyatt.

TOO MANY STUDIES.—It is a peculiarity of the times that young children are crowded with too many studies to be profitable, even if they are not actually injurious to their minds. The intellect needs to be treated in a great measure like the body. Inordinate labor has a like effect upon both, being wearing and exhausting. Young minds, especially, may be overburdened and confused by having a variety of studies pressed upon them at the same time, and by being forced to carry along many branches which render necessary such a variety of thought and investigation. It is a sort of hot-house procedure, while though it produces precious plants, they are without much hardy vitality.—The Standard.

WHAT SHALL CHILDREN READ?—Are teachers and parents asking daily this question? The power of reading! Is it possible to estimate its force! All the pupils above the age of nine years, and many, especially girls, of younger age, are not only able to read, but are hungry for reading-matter. We asked a boy of thirteen, recently, if he read much. He thought he did, and on telling upon what books his hours for the last two weeks had been spent we found the list to embrace The White Chief, The Indian Hunters, Seth Jones, and Sheet Anchor Tom. Guard carefully the school library. A young person is made to enjoy good reading as easily as to enjoy trash. Teachers can not do all, but parents and teachers can accomplish the whole. Guard well the reading of the boys and girls. It is the potent agent in making character.—Dever Times.

HEARING RECITATIONS.—It is a humbug to believe that the teacher's work is to hear recitations. The term is eminently appropriate—hearing a recitation. It supposes that there is nothing higher, better, or nobler, than to require pupils to recite what they have learned. "John, you may recite," is often heard in the recitation room; and "Mary, you may commence where John left off," as frequently follows as soon as John is through what he has to say. The teacher says little; the work moves on smoothly; each part is done well; and an unsophisticated visitor pronounces the work almost perfect. The performance is excellently named, for it is nothing more than a mere senseless, parrot-like recitation. The pupil having the greatest power of memorizing is the best scholar, and the person who has the greatest power of making pupils learn assigned tasks is the best teacher. If this is the teachers work, it is, indeed, a very humble one. We suspect that the hearers of recitations far outnumber the true teachers; and we suspect that this fact is one of the greatest causes tending to degrade the teacher's work from the high place it ought to occupy to the low plan of driver, scold, and urger, of young people.—Barnes' Ed. Monthly.

is the name of a new, thrilling and historical romance of the reign of Louis the Fifteenth, by Gabrielle De St. Andre, now in press and to be published in a few days by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. It is a romance of the days of Madame Pompadour, a story of love, intrigue and facts, and will no doubt prove to be one of the most popular and successful novels that have appeared in print for years, for its pages will be courted and perused by all that are fond of a thoroughly good novel, for its great and absorbing interest. It will be issued in uniform style and price with "Thoo," "Kathleen," "Gabrielle," and "Miss Crepigny," published by the same firm.

SATURDAY, DEC. 28, 1878.

Sonator Eustis has returned home to spend the holidays.

Ed M. Clark has received an appointment at the Granite Building.

Postmaster Badger is doing his level best to have the mails arrive on time.

Up to the time of this writing all efforts to meet the January interest on the State debt have failed.

The audience at St. Philip's Church on Christmas was treated to some fine music by its excellent choir.

The Literary Casket meets next Friday evening at the residence of Miss Chammette.

New Orleans was the healthiest city in the Union during the month of December.

Mr. David Jamison has been appointed the visiting physician of the Small-pox Hospital of the city.

Mr. R. W. Fitzmaurice, postmaster at Natchez, was in the city during the week in obedience to a summons by the Grand Jury.

On Saturday last the salaries of the school teachers were paid for the month of July.

Reader look at the new advertisement of Levy's Palais Royal Bazaar in another column if you wish to learn where to get cheap bargains.

The Picayune states "that eighty-seven revelers were arrested throughout the city for disturbing the public peace and being drunk."

The weather reached freezing point Wednesday and ice formed on the standing water on the outskirts of the city.

Thomas Burton, while acting in the capacity of mail carrier, is charged with extracting the sum of $80 from various registered letters. He now dwells in the parish prison, having been brought from Bienville parish.

The Democrat has information that Mrs. Bruce has not been invited to assist Mrs. Hayes at her first reception, and it seems to have lifted a load from the soul of our Democratic confrere who has evidently of late had the subject on the brain.

Garroting is not a pleasant thing at any time, but to be the victim of it on a Christmas night is dreadful, and yet it happened to a gentleman on Natchez street. A few more such occurrences will give our police a reputation as unenviable as those of New York city.

A romantic youth, by the name of Wm. Grady attempted to commit suicide because he was in love with Miss Jennie Winston, of the Adah Richmond Opera troupe, who claims to have never seen him, and therefore does not return his affections.

Col. Hardee is preparing specifications, asked for by a wealthy and philanthropic lady of the North, as to the cost, etc., of constructing in this city a number of fountains for the benefit of the poorer classes of citizens.

St. Charles Theatre.—One of the most charming and deserving plays that have been presented in our city for some years is the "Soldiers' Trust."

Geo. C. Boniface knows how to bring down the house, while his numerous attacks are excellent in their support. His son, G. C. Boniface deserves great credit for his good acting, and will certainly attain success. The play was well applauded, which showed there was an appreciative audience present. "The German Abroad," will be presented to-morrow evening.

Although the weather was dark, damp, and cold yesterday, Christmas was generally observed in this city. The churches held religious services and were well attended. Canal street was crowded from "morn till eve" with a gay and seemingly happy crowd. It was also honored with the usual number of drunks, fistuffs, fights, bruised heads, and black eyes. We have, thus far, heard of only a few accidents from the careless use of fire arms and fire works, but when the "returns are all in" expect they will foot up the usual totals. The telegraph wires report an unusual amount of crimes and casualties in other portions of the country.

The Custom house officials who whitewashed Mr. Acklen and thereby made it possible for his re-election are given a dreadful black eye by the publication of Gov. Penn in the Democrat of yesterday.

The following from the Inter-Ocean is just what we have been saying for the last four years, and for doing so, our Republicanism has been questioned. We wonder if any body will question its Republicanism.

"The Democratic papers are loudly proclaiming that 'the negro is getting his eyes open,' and 'he will vote the Democratic ticket.' The Democratic party has closed a good many negroes' eyes, and the price of the negro's vote has been murder. Neglected by the Republicans and scorned and driven by the Democracy, it is not at all wonderful that some of these persecuted people vote with the Democratic party. But few white men would have stood true to their principles so long."

INTELLIGENCE BUREAU.

PLANTERS, ATTENTION.

Riard's Employers' and Servants'

INTELLIGENCE BUREAU AND CLAIM AGENCY,

184.....POYDRAS STREET.....184

NEW ORLEANS.

The undersigned, having had many years experience in one of the largest Northern Cities, in the selection of servants for employers, and in obtaining situations for the unemployed, and believing in the advantage to the public of a permanent bureau, where those needing help can call at any time and secure such as may be required, and those out of employment can obtain good situations, inform the public that they have established a bureau as above, where, at the shortest notice,

PRIVATE FAMILIES, BOARDING HOUSES, HOTELS, RESTAURANTS, STEAMBOATS, STORES, PLANTATIONS, Etc., Etc.,

can be supplied with first-class cooks, waiters, nurses, stewards, (male and female) matrons, housekeepers, seamstresses, traveling servants, ladies' maids, valets, servants of all work, men or women to work by the day or month. Also, book-keepers, clerks, salesmen, overseers for plantations, bar-tenders, coachmen, waiters, groomers, hostlers, office-cleaners. Boys for any occupation, and likewise laborers for plantations, white and colored.

English, French, American, German and Spanish employers wishing first-class help, and those desiring good situations in the city or country, will find it to their advantage

TO CALL AT ONCE, OR COMMUNICATE AND HAVE THEIR NAMES REGISTERED.

Special attention given to private families, and ladies will find it to their advantage to call in person, and make known their requirements.

Neatly Furnished Sitting Rooms for those Desiring Situations.

Planters wishing first-class laborers from the North, or any of the Southern States (white or colored), can have their orders filled on short notice, by calling in person or addressing this bureau, as we have agents in each of the Southern States as well as in Northern cities, expressly for the purpose of engaging hands. Agents wanted in the country parishes and in the States of Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas, to whom a liberal compensation will be paid, for the purpose of engaging and forwarding labor. For particulars, enclose postage stamp.

UNITED STATES CLAIM AGENCY.

Claims of all kinds against the States, or the United States, for bounty, pensions, prize money, etc., etc., collected promptly.

Land warrants of the Revolutionary, Black Hawk, Florida, Mexican Wars, and War of 1812 bought and sold.

Compensation obtained for all losses of stock, produce, or otherwise, sustained by acts of the Federal Army during the war. No charges unless successful.

A. F. RIARD.

TO LANDLORDS AND HOUSE-KEEPERS!

THE REMOVAL OF THE CONTENTS OF WATER-CLOSETS, SINKS, &c., in an inoffensive manner, without detriment to public health, is a subject which has engaged the attention of the authorities of all large cities for ages.

Physicians united in declaring that a large proportion of deaths resulting from cholera, cholera-infantum, dysentery, malarious fevers, and even epidemics were attributable to the terribly offensive gases which arose from human excreta, upon its removal from the original deposit with buckets, agitating and exposing the contents to the atmosphere during the process of the work, and infecting the air while being transported through the streets to the nuisance wharf. All agreed as to the beneficial effects, and sought in vain for a proper remedy.

The enterprise and ingenuity of a firm of Baltimore mechanics has at last overcome this seemingly insurmountable barrier, and given us an invention which, in the opinion of the sanitary officers of the numerous wharves, is as near perfection for the purpose intended as it is possible to approach.

This invention is emphatically what it is claimed to be—An Odorless Excavator—two Apparatus—devoid of all the disgusting odor as not to attract attention, nor would the passer-by unless informed, have any idea as to what was being done.

4. THERE IS NO ODOR WHATSOEVER.—The sickening effluvia which arises under the old system is entirely obviated, and the gases consumed by a deodorizer.

The fact that the sanitary officers and boards of health of this, and nearly all other large cities, recommended its use declaring it to be cleanly, odorless, economical, practicable, and a preventive of disease, is a sufficient guarantee that the invention possesses all the qualities claimed, and shows it to be worthy of adoption from sanitary motives alone.

This apparatus is used in this city by the New Orleans Sanitary Excavating Company, who are now ready to go into practical operation.

All orders left at the office of the Company, 153 Common street, or sent to Box 918 Post-office, will receive prompt attention, and at low prices.

ADVOCATING THE RIGHTS OF MEN,

And representing, especially, the colored citizen, the LOUISIANIAN will maintain, as a fundamental principle, the perfect equality of all citizens, without regard to race or color.

OUR AIM

Shall be to foster kindly relations between the races, and to establish a more mutual respect for each other as the very first essential to the future peace and prosperity of our State and the South.

We enter upon our eighth year pledged to the advocacy of the

that has governed the LOUISIANIAN from the beginning. The necessity of a closer intercourse between the two classes—the colored and white people of our State—we rejoice to know, is fast becoming manifest; and, the recent emancipation of our people from the domination of political task-masters renders this desideratum possible.

HARMONY AND MODERATION

among all classes and between all interests; kindness and forbearance fostered where malignity and resentment reigned, and a common service of all the people will elevate our loved State to an enviable and rightful position among her sisters in the development of her boundless resources and matchless advantages.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

The LOUISIANIAN offers rare advantages to the merchant and business man. Our large and weekly increasing circulation within the State, and throughout the country, renders the service of our columns particularly desirable.

EDUCATION.

A special feature of our paper will be its educational column, relating to matters affecting our common school system, the education of our youth, and the enlightenment of the masses.

FINAL

With this statement of our purpose and landable endeavor, we hope we shall receive, as we shall always strive to merit, commendation and support. Identified with every interest of our State, proud of its history and its advantages, we shall untiringly work in its behalf; counting no exertion too great or services too onerous to command and insure success.
